JUST IN TIME.

Some Norway People May Wait Till It's Too Late.

Don't wait until too late. Be sure to be in time. Just in time with kidney pills. Means curing the back. Before backache becomes chronic. Before serious urinary troubles set in.

Doan's Kidney Pills will do this. Here is testimony to prove it.

Irving Merrill, Pleasant St., South Paris, Me., says: "A few months ago I began to suffer from pains in the small of my back. After being in a stooped position for any length of time I found it difficult to straighten. The pain and lameness clung to me for some time and when I saw that the kidney secretions were unnatural and irregular in passage, I decided that my kidneys were affected. I then procured Doan's Kidney Pills and after taking the contents of three boxes, the pain disappeared, together with the kidney difficulty. I heartily recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to any person suffering from disordered kidneys."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cts. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and no other.

Do You Get Up With a Lame Back?

Kidney Trouble Makes You Miserable.

Almost everyone knows of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy, because of its remarkable health restoring properties. Swamp-Root fulfills almost every wish in over-come rheumatism, pain in the back, kidneys, liver, bladder and every part of the urinary passage. It corrects inability to hold water and scalding pain in passing it, or bad effects following use of liquor, wine or beer, and overcomes that unpleasant necessity of being compelled to go often through the day, and to get up many times during the night.

Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble, it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been thoroughly tested in private practice, and has proved so successful that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble.

When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all druggists. Don't make any mistake but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

An Interesting Department Now Running
 In The Boston Journal.

We can hardly realize that only fifty years ago, from the towns and cities in which we now live, men were rushing to the South to take up arms against their countrymen in the greatest civil war in history. Nor can we appreciate the eagerness with which news from the front was sought by those left behind.

The Boston Journal is reprinting from its files of fifty years ago newsy and interesting paragraphs regarding the great battles and prominent men of that period, accompanying each by the comments of a veteran who saw many of the notable events and figures of the Civil War.

This column will be a daily feature as The Boston Journal, and, united with the woman's page, financial news, able editorials and snappy sporting items, will increase the interest with which The Boston Journal is received by many thousands of good New England families.

EAST SUMNER.

At the Masquerade.

"A very good time at the Masquerade social," was the verdict pronounced by the young people who attended the social at the Congregational vestry Friday, March 10.

Some of the costumes were very good, especially the one worn by Helen Tucker who dressed as an old fashioned girl in a silk dress which was worn as a wedding dress, sixty years ago.

Some of the other costumes were an Indian squaw, two Shaker ladies (which were represented by W. H. Eastman and Esther Eastman), a nurse, an operatic star, Night, a baby. There were three ghosts, two Red Riding Hoods, two Liberties, a fairy queen, a tramp, a chauffeur, an aged man, a fat man, a fisherman, two clowns, a Turk, and several who wore masks but did not dress any particular part. The greater part of those present did not mask at all. Ice cream, cake and home-made candy, were on sale during the evening.

BRYANT POND.

K. of P. Concert, Drill and Ball.

The Annual K. of P. concert, drill and ball which was held here Mar. 3, was a grand success socially and financially. This is the second annual ball held under the auspices of Mt. Christopher Company No. 41, and it is the present plan to hold them each year, making them the great social event of the year at Bryant Pond. Dudley Opera House was prettily decorated with red, white and blue streamers and flags, and the music, which was furnished by Perry & Hobbs' orchestra of Lewiston, was all that good music lovers could desire.

The orchestra gave a concert for about an hour, then came the drill by the company under the direction of Capt. Fred M. Cole which showed careful training and was much appreciated by all. At 8.30 the grand march was formed with between 75 and 80 couples on the floor. It was in the small hours of morning when the good night waltz was played and the crowd returned to their homes feeling that they had enjoyed one of the nicest and best times ever held at Bryant Pond.

Louis Libby is chopping for Ralph M. Bacon.

George McKenney and wife visited in Turner, Sunday.

Mrs. Charles Charles Walker of Harrison spent Sunday with her father, G. A. Whitman.

Allen and Lester Hathaway are bound to do a little farming during their vacation from High school and have commenced hauling out dressing.

The crows have come and are holding their daily concert and caucuses throughout the different sections of the town. Judging from the excitement among them at these caucuses we can but believe that they are discussing the Canadian Reciprocity Bill.

The annual report of the town shows that the officers of the town have been well managed during the past year. Resources are given as $3,279.81, liabilities $656.84, leaving a balance in favor of the town of $2,622.97. Of this amount $2,436.21 is cash in the treasury, while only $187.00 is left in outstanding bills and orders. We doubt very much if any town in Oxford County can make a better showing financially than the good old town of Woodstock.

Town meeting passed off very quietly here and was probably one of the most harmonious Woodstock has ever had. There was some discussion over the article in the warrant to see if the town would vote to build an iron bridge over stream near Ralph M. Bacon's place. It was decided that a new bridge must be built, but the matter was left with the road commissioner to decide whether it should be wood or iron. An informal vote was taken which showed that a majority of the voters considered an iron bridge the most economical for the town.

Nearly one-third of the population are ill with the grip.

D. A. Cole, mail carrier on Route 1, will leave this week for Boston on a few days' vacation.

John G. Estes and family are at Azis-ocous Fall, where Mr. Estes is employed by the Androscoggin Reservoir Co., on a big dam. Charles Kimball will occupy his home for the present.

George E. Stevens is reported sick with pneumonia. A trained nurse was summoned Monday, and his father, Dr. Orin Stevens of Oxford, and Dr. Roseman are attending him.

A Sons of Veteran Camp was organized at the town hall on the evening of March 11. Officers from Augusta were present, and fifteen members were taken in. It will be known as Camp Slocum. Freeman, M. Morse was chosen Commander.

Ernest Thompson has moved from the Harry Cole house which was lately sold to Mrs. Abbie Russell. Mrs. Russell moved to the place, Monday. Mr. Thompson has stored his goods for the present in Miss Crockett's garage. Mrs. Thompson and son, George, are with her people in Hartland.

Mrs. Maria Goertiz, Orienta, Oklahoma, writes:

"My husband, children and myself have used your medicine, and we all have kept them in the house in case of necessity. I was restored to health by this medicine, and Dr. Hartman's invaluable advice and books. People ask about me from different places, and are surprised that I can do all of my household work alone, and that I was cured by the doctor of chronic catarrh. My husband was cured of asthma, my daughter of earache and catarrh of the stomach, and my son of catarrh of the throat. When I was sick I weighed 100 pounds; now I weigh 140.

"I have regained my health again, and I cannot thank you enough for your advice. May God give you a long life and bless your work."

Mrs. Ann Estes.
Mrs. Ann Andrews-Ellingwood-Estes died at her late home on Pioneer street last Saturday night, March 11. Mrs. Estes, who has been in poor health for some time, could not endure an attack of pneumonia. She was sick about a week and the fever was gradually leaving when typhoid symptoms set in. She was born in Norway, making her a little more than 75 years old.

She was one of a large family of children of Rev. Zibi and Thankful Andrews, three of whom survive her, Rev. John Andrews of Utah, Mrs. Lizzie Carleton and Mrs. Charlotte Benson of California. Mrs. Estes' sister Rachel, wife of Samuel W. Dunham of South Woodstock, have died within the past year.

She became the wife of Oscar P. Ellingwood when quite a young woman. To them were given one daughter and three sons; Edith, wife of late Christian Washburn, now deceased, mother of Mrs. Grace Stevens of North Paris; George, of Ellingwood of Chicago, Ill.; Charles of Georgia; and Arthur in Niagara, N. Y. None of her children, brother or sisters could be here during her sickness or funeral.

Mr. Ellingwood died at his home at Troy Corners in the spring of 1901. In March, 1903, she married Samuel K. Estes and they bought a lot of land opposite Mann's mill on Pioneer street and built the house where they lived happily in their new home until their final separation.

Mrs. Estes was a Christian and she with her husband together enjoyed the services at the Methodist church, whenever weather and health permitted. Mr. Estes for the third time is left alone without a companion and the time his declining years will be often sad and lonely. He has two daughters and two sons who will now be his comforters.

The funeral was held at the M. E. church Monday afternoon, with Rev. Seth Benson an old friend of the deceased, and by her request spoke comforting words to the mourning friends, assisted by Rev. L. W. Souther of the M. E. church and Rev. L. W. Raymond of the Free Baptist church. A ladies' quartette rendered two old familiar hymns, "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Rock of Ages." The casket was covered with sweet and beautiful flowers. The interment took place at the South-Woodstock cemetery, beside her first husband.

NORWAY AND VICINITY
The county commissioners have expected the new municipal court room. The building is now nearly ready to be turned over to the tenants. The new court room will be a very convenient and attractive room. The view from the windows is out to Pike's Hill.

Beryl Foster was given a reception shopmates and friends, Monday evening, March 21st, at the home of her sister Mrs. Winfield Allen at South Paris.

During the evening light refreshments consisting of punch, ice cream and far crackers were served. Master Dr. Allen in behalf of the girls in the sitting room presented his aunt Beryl with a fine opal ring. A large number of guests were present and a delightful evening enjoyed. Miss Foster accepted the position of assistant lady with the Berry Shoe Co. of Portland and will leave for there in a few days.

The company departed at a late hour and all were united in wishing Beryl success and happiness in her new field of labor.

Mildred and Rouclere.
Monday evening, Mildred and Rouclere, the world-toured absolute masters of mysteries, presented an excellent evening of entertainment at Opera House, with a fair sized audience present.

Rouclere is an artist in the art of mystifying an audience, and causing illusions and deceptions to pre-empt throughout the evening. Among astonishing surprises were, My Little Kimono, The Arrival of Rouclere, Modern Miracles, Fantastical Race, The Clown and the Bear, and a Daughter of Uncle Sam.

Among many tricks was the selection of several cards by members of the audience, and as the missing card was called for, it rose from the pack on the stage. The fourth one torn up and one piece retained, but rolled the missing card from a cigar 20-center, with the piece missing.

From a bottle he turned some water and upon request turned water into "spirit" was desired and upon returning to the stage broke the bottle and a guinea pig with the ring he borrowed from the audience about neck.

There were tricks of all kinds and handkerchiefs, money made to come from all sources and in fact a hundred and one slight of hand tricks.

Mildred Rouclere, "The Bewilderer of Mystery," gave an excellent exhibition of telepathic senses. She was blindfolded on the stage and Rouclere passed through the audience different ones told him their names. She would tell them their names, whatever question they were thinking about, and answer the same.

Rouclere then put her to sleep, and passed around the audience and different ones told him something they wanted her to do, and returning to the stage pointed to the first one and Mildred went to the board and wrote the thing pointing to the second, the immediate answer, the next she bunted up a man on the floor and returned it to the one and for another picked up a box of candy and counted out six pieces and returned the box, etc.

Among other specialties was the "Living Generation," which was in the form of a man who came upon the stage, keeping time to the music gradually grew from a man of about five feet one over eight. Several solos were sung by Mildred Rouclere, J. R. Reno, a Minister and the Maid, Williams & Miss Melburn caused no limited amount of merriment by their songs and gestures.

The last act was the flight of Prince Tia. She came on stage and brought out a person wrapped in a sheet, another wrapped in a red cloth, Rouclere also brought out two from the cage where apparently no one was. Rouclere and Mildred both entered the cage and soon the doors were opened and one was there. The wrapping was taken from these people which they brought to the stage from the cage and there stood Mildred and Rouclere wrapped in the covering. How they it—you tell.

"The Flaming Arrow"
That beautiful scenic production the west, as it really was in the days in the vicinity of Pike's Hill, the Indians were having most frequent and the United States soldiers were ever on alert, "The Flaming Arrow" will be presented at Norway Opera House on Monday evening, March 27th. Although at first thought one would expect a play full of blood and thund it is not so, being devoid of this, a coat evictions and other stereotypical features.

The plot is consistent and nature developed; comedy and pathos are terminated in a pleasing manner, each act has a surprising and effective climax. The electrical and scenic effects are marvelous, in fact noncomparable.

WEST PARIS.

Mrs. Ann Andrews-Ellingwood-Estes died at her late home on Pioneer street last Saturday night, March 11. Mrs. Estes, who has been in poor health for some time, could not endure an attack of pneumonia. She was sick about a week and the fever was gradually leaving when typhoid symptoms set in. She was born Feb. 26, 1836, making her a little more than 75 years old.

She was one of a large family of children of Rev. Zibi and Thankful Andrews, three of whom survive her, Rev. John Andrews of Utah, Mrs. Lizzie Carlton and Mrs. Charlotte Benson of California. Mrs. Estes' sister Rachel, wife of Samuel W. Dunham of this place, and brother, Isaac W. Andrews of South Woodstock, have died within the past year.

She became the wife of Oscar P. Ellingwood when quite a young woman and to them were given one daughter and three sons; Edith, wife of late Christian Washburn, now deceased, mother of Mrs. Grace Stevens of North Paris; George Ellingwood of Chicago, Ill.; Charles of Georgia; and Arthur in Niagara, N. Y. None of the children, brother or sisters could be here during her sickness or funeral.

Mr. Ellingwood died at their home at Trap Corner, in the spring of 1901. In March, 1903, she married Samuel K. Estes and they bought a lot of land opposite Mann's mill on Pioneer street and built the house where they lived happily in their new home until their final separation.

Mrs. Estes was a Christian and she with her husband together enjoyed the services at the Methodist church, whenever weather and health permitted. Mr. Estes for the third time is left alone without a companion in this time his declining years will be often sad and lonely. He has two daughters and two sons who will now be his comforters.

The funeral was held at the M. E. church Monday afternoon, with Rev. Seth Benson an old friend of the deceased, and by her request spoke comforting words to the mourning friends, assisted by Rev. L. W. Souther of the M. E. church and Rev. L. W. Raymond of the Free Baptist church. A ladies' quartette rendered two old familiar hymns, "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Rock of Ages," which was covered with sweet and beautiful flowers. The interment took place at the South-Woodstock cemetery, beside her first husband.

In going across this place the horse slipped and was killed instantly.
